

terra summa: the whole of the earth

From the world's most verdant vineyards comes Terra Summa. A celebration of magnificent wines from "The Whole of the Earth" ... created by artisans distinguished by their global commitment to sustainable agriculture.

Only the finest organically grown grapes become Terra Summa. Our wines are vibrant and full of life, as are the lush vineyards they are grown in. Organic viticulture nourishes a thriving ecosystem and conserves healthy farmland. Here pure water, soil minerals and abundant sunshine nurture each vine as nature intended.

Passion for planet, people and perfect wine enable our vignerons to do amazing things. Grapes free of synthetic pesticides and fertilizers are exceptionally high in antioxidants, and produce flavorful wines that are a true appellation of their region.

Whether you prefer a marvelous Merlot, a tempestuous Tempranillo or a classic Chardonnay, there is a Terra Summa wine for every occasion and wine lover.

Uncork the finest natural wines the earth has to offer.
